Translate the following passages into Persian.

- They had idols made of wood or metal or stones with no definite form. They made several turns around the idols whenever they wanted to go into their houses. They also took permission from them when they wanted to go out on a journey, and finally took them with themselves.
- History has witnessed that they tried every way in their opposition to Muhammad (S.A.). They even rose up to fight him, but they have never managed with this facile and simple ruse to prove that these characteristics did not exist, so it is clear that abundant information concerning the prophet of Islam existed in their sacred books.

نیمسال دوم ۸۲-۸۳

3. There is no doubt that man has progressed far in the way of knowledge, but scientists themselves confess that what they know in the world of creation is not comparable with what they do not know. Basically, since their vision is limited, they cannot find out all the secrets of the world.
4. No society, at any time or place, can stand free and liberated without a leader. This is always true. Inspired by this reality, we can proceed to say that anyone who is the ruler over a society, if he is dedicated to its strength and happiness, he must necessarily strive to protect it.
